Important: if you are currently on a music scholarship at your institution, you must secure a scholarship release letter from the dean or director of your current school before any offer of admission to a music degree and/or a music scholarship can be presented by the OU School of Music. Please have the scholarship release letter and two letters of recommendation (one must be from a music instructor) sent to Brenda Durnbaugh at the address above.

Please continue if you are planning to major in music.

I am interested in the following degrees in music:

BM (performance) BME (music education) BMA (music plus secondary interest) BFA (fine arts/music)

Please include the following information with this application:

- Resumé (include name and address of your high school, names of ensemble director and private music instructor, honors and awards, music performance experience, and work experience)
- Essay (one-page, computer-generated, double-spaced) describing the role of music in your life in the future and how a university education will help you accomplish your goals
